Dear Parents...

It was great meeting most of you at Meet the Teacher Night. Remember the green PBIS form and the student/teacher/parent compact is due asap. If you have any additional questions, please feel free to email me. Our communication is key in making this school year a success.

I will write a newsletter weekly to communicate with families on what is happening in our classroom. It is always uploaded to our classroom website. Kidsinroom111.weebly.com Please review the upcoming week objectives and spelling words. The students will be tested on the 15 spelling words every Friday online. They did great today!
