Dear Parents...

This week I will test your child's DRA reading level and will soon begin pulling reading groups for Guided Reading. Guided Reading will be practiced during Daily 5. If you have any questions about Daily 5, please let me know.

Your child has been bringing their planners home every night. The planners will mostly be composed of reminders, unless your child did not finish something in class. Therefore, it is homework and needs to be returned the following day. Please sign the planner after you look at what PBIS color your child finished the day on.

Upcoming events include:

September 29th- PTA Mad Scientist Night!

September 30th- Tornado Drill in AM/PBIS Reward!

October 6th- Picture Day!

October 7th- Fun Run!
